Acceptance of your application is subject to approval.

Please tick this box to indicate that you have read and accepted the principles of the Scottish Progressives.

Statement of Principles

The Progressive Party exists to build a free, open and prosperous society guided by the values of economic and social liberalism. We promote individual freedom and responsibility, self-reliance through the family and the minimum of government consistent with the achievement of these aims. Internationally we seek to extend free trade, promote human rights and freedom of conscience, encourage the development of free societies and create a more secure world in which liberty and the rule of law can flourish.

Please make cheques payable to The Progressive Party.
